

LIVE

Published for the residents of Sevenhampton and Brockhampton, Gloucestershire.
Sponsored by Sevenhampton Parish Council & The Show at Brockhampton

Village Live and Its Future

This publication began in 1996 after the Parish Council conducted a "Village Appraisal" to determine what residents would like. A newsletter listing local events was thought to be useful, so "Village Live" evolved. I volunteered to take it on and Bill did most of the work.

Whilst the first edition wasn't actually chiselled into rock, it begins to feel that way as communication changes have been so massive.

It seems timely for a new approach to disseminating local information and it's also definitely overdue for us to call it a day. The noble souls who have delivered the copies round the parish have all-worked long & hard.

It's our intention to produce one more edition to include the list of annual events and the list of local businesses you may like to use.

If you have ideas for the future or would like to take it over, it's future is on the agenda for the next Parish Council on May 20th or you can email us on:

Items for the Last? Issue (Jun/July) by 20th May, please.

New Projector and Screen For Village Hall

A new projector, screen and Blu-Ray player have been acquired by the Rhodes Memorial Hall. This has been financed by the Hall Trustees and also by a generous donation from the Brockhampton Show.

This addition will make it easier to set up for the Brockhampton Community Cinema evenings and provide more space for the audience. The equipment can also be used by people giving illustrated talks as there are inputs to the projector at the front of the hall as well as the back. It also links up with the sound system already installed in the hall. Many thanks have to go to Colin Harman who was instrumental in planning and organising this project.

SEVEN Councillors needed for SEVENhampton.

Are you interested in your community & how it operates, could you do more – then why not become a parish councillor? As a representative of the parish, additional support and training for your role will be provided.

If, in the last year you have lived / worked in the parish (or within 3 mls of it), you are likely to be an eligible candidate. Nomination papers and more information is available from the Parish Clerk Tel: 01242 21018 / Email: parish.clerk@sevenhampton.org or Cotswold District Council at www.cotswold.gov.uk.

Nomination papers are available NOW & must be submitted by 3rd APRIL.

New Parish Clerk

Di Cook, who has been Parish Clerk since July 2015 is stepping down after an excellent few years & she'll be much missed. We've been spoiled till now in always having Clerks who've also been Parishioners but this now will change.

The new clerk to the parish will be Belinda Holder who is well qualified and is also the clerk to several other small parishes. She is not a local resident but will be contactable on the parish clerk's email address - parish.clerk@sevenhampton.org.

First Aid Courses

Concentrating on CPR, unconscious casualty and use of a defibrillator.

Would you be interested in attending a three hour course on these life saving skills? The course would be taken by an instructor from Gloucestershire Adult Education.

If we have enough volunteers the class could be run in the village hall.

If you are interested please get in touch with Di Cook -
