

WALK LIVE EXTRA

Issue 13 Christmas 1999

The Millennium Postbox was opened on Saturday 11th December when our oldest resident, Mrs Betty Hyatt braved the weather to post the first letter. In quick succession the younger parishioners took over and letters from Little Lanfears, Junior Jacksons and Not-so-Oldhams began their journeys. How many were for Father Christmas is unrecorded.

The Echo would have photographed the occasion but their nose for news took them to the Swindon Village Brockhampton in error!

Good to have a Millennium monument and let's hope future young parishioners post their first letters in it and as a taken for posterity. Congratulations to the diverse bunch involved in its creation, particularly Martin Podd who stuck with it from the first photo of one with a knob on to the elegant reality of today and Colin Rosser whose enthusiasm kept all the Millennium Schemes alive and who we wish a happy and healthy New Year.

New Millennium's Village Hall Programme

9.30pm Hall Open for Families & Residents to bring their own Food & Drink. Share the evening and may be trade as a sausage roll or two for some Christmas cake or glass of pop. Music from Bob Holland.

11.45pm Prepare for 50yd trip to "the walks" to watch Millennium fireworks where hopefully other villagers will leave their firesides and parties to enjoy the display. Bring a torch.

Midnight Fireworks and resolutions then back to parties or onto:

00.30 "Champagne Breakfast" for those who've booked. A few tickets still available - ring Annie Weatherley on 820718. Tickets £6.
